FROM DEACON NICK ADAM

I would start writing all the clichés that exist about how fast time passes, but we already know them all! I write this article with sincere gratitude to all the people of St. Richard Parish. You have helped me to grow as a minister and to have a very successful diaconate internship. If you would like to contact me while I am back in the seminary, my address is 2901 S Carrollton Ave. New Orleans, LA 70118. I will keep my email address here at St. Richard's as well, deacon.nick@saintrichard.com.

The next few months will involve me making final preparations for priesthood. I will be taking classes in parish administration, spiritual direction, penance/reconciliation, and a class on how to celebrate mass. I will also be completing my thesis project for my master's program. It is difficult to leave, but it is also very exciting to be entering this final stage of my seminary career. I am very blessed to be at Notre Dame Seminary and love the staff and my classmates.

I will be back at St. Richard for the Monsignor Glynn Brunch next month, and Bishop Kopacz would like me to return when possible when I have time off at the seminary, so I will not be a stranger to St. R! A great thanks to Father John for being an outstanding example to me and a strong supporter as I waded through the waters of full-time ministry for the first time. To the parish staff, thank you giving me a great example of what can happen when faithful, competent professionals come together around a common mission. To the school staff and students (including the Special Kids), thank you for being such a source of joy.

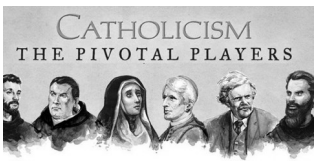
I could not have asked for a better assignment, and I am sincerely grateful to you all. See you soon!

Deacon Nick Adam

SMALL FAITH COMMUNITY– NOT TOO LATE

It is not too late to participate in a Small Faith Community! Sign up now! We are creating a new group this season that will meet in Foley Hall on Tuesdays from 6:30 P.M. until 8 P.M., beginning October 17.

We will meet for 6 consecutive Tuesdays in Foley Hall to watch Bishop Robert Barron's "Pivotal Players" as a group. After the presentation, we will divide into smaller groups for discussion.



If you aren't sure how Small Faith Communities work, please join us and see for yourself! If you have any questions, contact Debbie Tubertini at 601.366.2335 ext. 107 or email tubertini@saintrichard.com.

TAKE TEN WITH FAMILY AND FRIENDS

Spend 10 minutes reflecting on next Sunday's Scripture
Sunday, October 22 (Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time)
Isaiah 45: 1, 4 - 6 1 Thessalonians 1: 1 - 5b Matthew 22: 15 - 21
What does Caesar really have that does not come first from God?
So the question is a false dichotomy, for everything belongs to God. Let us pray today for the grace to remember this when we face questions about where our allegiance lies.
