FROM FATHER JOHN

Jh is past week the Catholic Church in the United States celebrated Catholic Schools Week. As a product of 17 years of Catholic School education (K-12 as well as Seminary), I am a big proponent of Catholic School formation. I believe my Catholic School education was the single greatest gift my parents ever afforded me.

Historically, Catholic schools were started to be distinctly different from any other type of school. The Catholic Church has always believed that education must be rooted in the theological idea that humans, made in God's image and likeness, are naturally imbued with both the desire and the capacity to know God more fully and to experience God within what are referred to as the '3 Transcendentals' of Goodness, Truth and Beauty. Therefore, education is about more than just 'passing on information' or teaching someone WHAT to think. Rather, the Catholic ideal of education is to teach students HOW to think, and how to recognize truth, goodness and beauty in the world around them.

Trust me when I say this; now more than ever the world needs people who know HOW to think rather than people who are told WHAT to think. Watch television or stuff on the internet at any given time and you will increasingly see people who parrot what they've been told by someone else without having the vaguest idea of why they came to that conclusion. Likewise, the world is full of enough Badness, Lies and Ugliness. We don't need any more of any of those.

Here at St. Richard School, it is my firm desire that we continue the great Catholic tradition of teaching your children how to think, of enabling them to reach their full potential of who they were created to be, which are 'beings made in the image and likeness of God' who are to go out into the world and bear great fruit that is rooted in Goodness, Truth and Beauty.

ST. RICHARD BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP- DATE & ROOM CHANGE

St. Richard Bereavement Support Group

"Valentine's Day: Past and Present"

The monthly St. Richard Bereavement Support Group will have a special meeting on TUESDAY, February 14, at 6:30 P.M. in the Chichester Room. (The regular second Thursday date is changed this month because of our Parish Mission.) We will meet on Valentine's night to celebrate our loved ones with wine and cheese and extra refreshments. Nancy McGhee will lead our sharing on Valentine's Day past and present. It is good to remember the good times and to share how we got through the difficult ones. Come with your special memories, whether good or sad.

This group is for all who are hurting from losing a loved one or for those who are trying to comfort and understand the grief of a family member or friend. If you know someone who is bereaved, please invite them. It is open to all. If you have questions or just need to talk to someone, call Suzie Cranston 601.982.5464, Linda Lalor 601.853.8840, or Nancy McGhee 601.942.2078 or email nmcghee@bellsouth.net.

TAKE TEN WITH FAMILY OR FRIENDS

Spend 10 minutes reflecting on God's Word

NEXT Sunday's Scripture: Sirach 15:15-20

1 Corinthians 2:6-10

Matthew 5:17-37

It might be good to reflect on one area in our life where we can do more, and to pray for the grace to do so.
