Parents of Catechesis of Good Shepherd Students:

Teaching Safety-Empowering God's Children is a Diocesan endorsed program to help your child identify potential dangerous situations and how to define personal and social boundaries. The program will be presented this weekend on Sunday, OCTOBER 2, 2022 during the regular Sunday session of CGS. Due to the sensitivity of the subject matter, parents are offered further information on the St. Richard website. Parents are also encouraged to contact Susan O'Connor if there are any concerns dre@saintrichard.com.

Debbie Tubertini, Director of Family Life (Diocese of Jackson): Congratulations to Debbie Tubertini who has accepted the position of Director of Family Life with the Diocese of Jackson. The Family Life Office is responsible for Evangelization for married couples, those who are engaged to marry and to offer Catholic support to the family. She will be leaving the Parish as Director of Evangelization and Receptionist. Debbie has done phenomenal work and has enhanced the parish over the years through ministries, small faith groups and personal encounters with Christ. She is the smiling friendly face as you enter the parish office. The Diocese's gain is our loss!

St. Richard BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP
“How Did King David Grieve?”
 Speaker – Dr. Danny Dickerson, Chaplain of Kindred Hospice Ministry
 TIME CHANGE - Thursday, October 13, at 6:00 p.m. - Chichester Room
The St. Richard Bereavement Support Group will meet on THURSDAY, October 13, at SIX O'clock (6:00) p.m. in the Chichester Room. An interesting topic...What can we learn from how David grieved the deaths of King Saul, his friend Jonathan, his two sons Absalom and a newborn son? Grieving the death of loved ones is, and has always been, a most difficult part of life. Chaplain Dickerson also sings and plays music as part of his sharing.

Congratulations:

- Katherine Taylor Stephenson, daughter of Elizabeth and Brian, who is baptized this Sunday.
