CHRIST THE KING

Today, November 20th, is "Jesus Christ, King of the Universe", which ends the liturgical year. On this occasion, we will be bringing three young people (Patrick Meeks, Ethan Meeks and Zuri Hayes) into the Faith through Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Communion during the 10:30am Mass.

INTO THE BREACH—Called to Greatness, Called to be a Leader

Join us this Monday, November 21st at 6:00 pm in Foley Hall for the 3rd session of this monthly series, focused on our need to be leaders as Catholic men. Open to all Catholic gentlemen age 16+. Bring a $5 donation for Chili and Fixins following the program. For more information, please call Guy Heying at 601-209-2911

ST. RICHARD CHOIR

Middle-schoolers, teenagers, and all adults are invited to be part of our Sunday (10:30 am) choir. If you are interested in performing for Advent, Christmas or Easter, there is also a place in these seasonal choirs. Practices are held in the Cecilia Room at St. Richard on Wednesdays from 7:00 pm until 8:30 pm. For more information, contact Janette Sudderth, Choir Director, at sudderth@saintrichard.com

SPECIAL KIDS AWESOME WALL

The "Awesome Wall" is a space dedicated to prizes to positively reinforce our Special Kids to pursue excellence in skills, learning and manners. The prizes are small items (craft activities, costume jewelry, games) that serve as awards. Please consider donating some "Dollar Store" items to Special Kids for this purpose.

Contact Kim Turner for more information at sk@saintrichard.com

MANHATTAN MALL

Each year our 6th graders request donations for our biggest service project of the year. The Manhattan Mall allows the residents of Manhattan Nursing Home who are unable to leave to shop for Christmas presents for their children or grandchildren. The items you donate help us stock the store. Please drop off items by November 28th at the school or church office. Please visit saintrichard.com for a list of requested items.
